

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

Election, Tuesday, November 4, 1884.

FOR PRESIDENT,
JAMES G. BLAINE,
OF MAINE.FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
JOHN A. LOGAN,
OF ILLINOIS.PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.At Large—J. L. MYERS.
First District—J. W. OSMAN.
Second District—D. E. VAN DYKE.
Third District—J. L. KERR.
Fourth District—J. H. KERR.
Fifth District—E. W. ANGER.
Sixth District—G. B. TOWN.
Seventh District—W. M. FOO.
Eighth District—N. C. ASHROB.
Ninth District—E. L. BROWN.

More democrats will take to the woods this fall than was ever before known at a national election.

The bank of England feeds its own clerks during business hours, and this one costs the bank $50,000 a year.

Those who attempt to monkey with the Blaine boom, will get hurt. It will go off on the 4th of November and will play havoc in the crowd that think the boom is a good thing to play with.

Illinois and Maine gave the republican party a ticket which swept the north in 1880, and Maine and Illinois have given the republican party and ticket that will sweep it in 1884.

The busiest minister on record is Mr. William E. Thompson, of New Ipswich, New Hampshire. He is pastor of the Baptist church, a farmer, a teamster, a dealer in wool, collector, and a member of the board of selectmen.

For a day or two the democratic press pretended to be quite hilarious over the republican nominations. They have cooled down now, however, and sober reflection tells them they are beaten again. Thus does the fate continually dog the heels of the democracy party.

JIN.

Why, he's the festive little pill that went through Gaudin's mill And made his chivalry so ill. He stole the Blaine little eagle, And put on Morton's bloody shirt. Hammered Cullum's banner of union. Walked away out of reformation. Whipped Butler's grey lock. And put a black eye on Sam Cox.

Never was a grander opportunity offered the democracy to make snuff of a victory—Madison Democrat.

For twenty-four years the democracy has had that "grand opportunity" but at every national election the party has been beaten, and in '84 its defeat will be more overwhelming than ever.

Wall street, it is said, is not pleased with the nomination of Blaine, and hence there naturally arises the important political question: "Where is Mr. Blaine to get his campaign 'soap'?"—Chicago Times.

It is a good omen if Wall street is not pleased with the nomination of Blaine. He can get along without Wall street's money, and will get his campaign 'soap' from the people—their enthusiasm and their votes.

The republican papers that have expressed a premature opinion on Theodore Roosevelt, the young New York reformer, will please recall the unkind things they have said about him. Though not half so old in years as George William Curtis, Andrew D. White, and Carl Schurz, he is much more mature than they in political wisdom. He says he was disappointed in the defeat of Edmunds, but he is a republican, and will support Blaine. This is the duty of every republican who is a republican in deed, and who has no political dyspepsia. A man who can be a republican only when his fastidious mind is pleased, is not worthy to belong to the party.

As Mr. Blaine is busy now-days receiving congratulations on his nomination, and has no time to think of his cabinet, the Gazette comes to his timely aid, and makes a cabinet for him, nominating the following distinguished gentlemen: Secretary of state—Rosewell Conkling, of New York.
Secretary of the treasury—John Sherman, of Ohio.
Secretary of war—Lucius Fairchild, of Wisconsin.
Secretary of the navy—Emory Speer, of Georgia.
Secretary of the interior—John F. Miller, of California.
Postmaster General—J. B. Henderson, of Missouri.
Attorney General—John D. Long, of Massachusetts.

This is a strong cabinet, and geographically is well distributed. No faction can find fault with it, as each has an excellent representative. The Gazette is assured that Mr. Blaine will think well of the services the paper volunteers to render him when his hands are too full of business to pay any attention to cabinet making.

THE WHEAT PROSPECTS.

The grain statistics of Milwaukee, Mr. S. W. Talmadge, has received the latest official reports from most of the state agricultural departments, state statistical agents, and other sources, regarding the condition of the wheat crop. The spring wheat of Wisconsin, Minnesota, Nebraska, Iowa and Dakota, report the condition most excellent and far above the average. All agree that with reasonable weather from now on the yield will exceed that of any former year. The following are the estimates of the probable yield of spring wheat in the states named:

State	Bushels
Minnesota	2,000,000
Nebraska	2,000,000
Iowa	2,000,000
Wisconsin	2,000,000
Total	10,000,000

Mr. Talmadge also reports that the advices from the larger winter wheat states are that the condition and outlook are exceedingly promising, while a few of the southern states complain some of damage by fly and cheat. The yield of winter wheat is estimated at 375,000,000 bushels, making a total yield for 1884 of 376,000,000 bushels, which will be the largest crop ever produced in this country, exceeding the big crop of 1882 by 12,000,000, the crop of 1883 by 118,000,000, and will exceed an average crop for past five years by at least 60,000,000 bushels.

TILDEN AND HENDRICKS.

Two States Declare for Them and Texas Will Follow Suit.

Tickets That Are Talked of for the Democratic-Slouch and Morrison—Several Political News Notes.

AUSTIN, Tex., June 11.—The Democratic state convention was called to order at noon. George W. Baker, of Pecos, was elected temporary chairman. The platform adopted affirms the devotion of the Democratic party to the principles set down in the national Democratic platform of 1876, and in 1880, demands the nomination of Tilden and Hendricks, the removal of all restrictions on silver coinage, opposes the acquisition of large tracts of public lands by states, and demands the absolute reclamation of the Chinese. G. W. Cassidy was nominated by acclamation for congress, and W. M. Sawall for supreme judge. A. C. Ellis, George Ernest, and W. B. F. Shaw, were elected presidential electors. D. E. McCarthy, R. F. Hendricks, John H. Dennis, Sadler, T. Leamon, and Matt. Cavanaugh, were elected delegates to the Chicago Democratic national convention. All are pledged to Tilden and Hendricks.

California Democrats.
STOCKTON, Cal., June 11.—The Democratic state convention met here, John H. Wise in the chair.

Mr. Wise, in his speech, said: "Let us, the Democrats of California, send a delegation to Chicago for the old ticket, Tilden and Hendricks. If Tilden is nominated, we can give California against the imperial kaiser of Maine." The mention of Tilden's name was greeted with tremendous applause, and all present jumped to their feet, waving hats, handkerchiefs, cigars, and flags. Several minutes the speaker was unable to proceed. When quiet was restored, nominations for temporary chairman were called for. Stephen M. White, of Los Angeles, an Anti-Mongoloid, was elected by acclamation. On taking the chair, Mr. White, in the course of his speech, said it was the duty of the Democrats throughout the entire country to nominate Tilden for the presidency.

After the appointment of the various committees the convention adjourned until 6 o'clock Wednesday morning.

The third congressional district caucus elected Warren B. English and M. F. Murphy delegates to the Democratic national convention. Both are pledged to Tilden and Hendricks, with Thurman as second choice.

John R. Glasscock was unanimously named for congress.

Texas Solid for Tilden.

FOUR WORTH, Tex., June 11.—The state Democratic convention assembled here to select two presidential delegates to the national Democratic convention at Chicago. There will be 520 delegates, about one-third of whom have arrived. There is also a large number of visitors. The city will be crowded. In addition to selecting delegates to Chicago, the convention will express itself in regard to the abrogation of the two-thirds rule, which will, from the present indications, be superseded by the majority rule. The delegates of the delegates are most unanimous for the old ticket of Tilden and Hendricks, and on the strength of telegrams received from New York indicating that Mr. Tilden will certainly accept the nomination if made with virtual unanimity at Chicago, a delegation will be sent from Texas favorable to him, and perhaps with positive instructions. The sentiment of all leading Democrats, particularly ex-Governor Hubbard, who will be sent as one of the delegates at-large, is that Blaine and Logan can be easily defeated by Tilden and Hendricks.

Tickets for Democrats.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Slouch and Morrison is the ticket that some are now trying to boom for the purpose of supplanting the tickets headed by Bayard and Cleveland, respectively, who have grown rapidly in favor since Blaine and Logan have been raised. The name of ex-Senator McDonald, of Indiana, is also mentioned in connection with that of Gen. Slouch, sometimes with the general in the lead, and at others with the general in the first place on the ticket. Mr. McDonald has appeared in Washington to look after his interests as a presidential candidate, and has had a confidential conference with his personal friends in congress. His claim rests upon the supposition that it is necessary to carry Indiana, and that no other Democrat can do so well. Gen. Slouch is expected to supply to the ticket what strength the New York ticket of Mr. McDonald may lack, and as the vote of New York is more important than that of Indiana Gen. Slouch's friends claim that he should head the ticket. The general has been persuaded that he is the most available candidate. Outside of the outside in congress who are at the back of this movement, neither Slouch nor McDonald appears to be regarded as a candidate for the place on the ticket. Congressman Adams, of New York, says Slouch would poll a larger majority in Kings county and New York city than Cleveland or Flower or any other Democrat except Tilden.

The Hall for July 8.

CHICAGO, June 11.—The Democratic local committee on arrangements has decided to sell tickets of admission at prices ranging from $25 to $50, the price going higher as the number of tickets increases, and no one person to have more than ten. This plan, it is believed, will raise the money necessary for convention expenses—$25,000. A subscription was organized to take in advance the changes at the hall, and the latter made a visit to the Exposition building to see what improvements could be made and how the seating capacity could be enlarged. Architect Albert was present, and explained that the proposition to enlarge the hall by extending it beyond its present southern limits was feasible enough, but that it would cost a great deal of money to carry it out. The partition walls on the third and fourth stories could be moved back about eight feet without great expense, and by taking out the busses, besides, room for about 1,500 additional chairs could be made. The latter proposition was adopted. There will also be a large number of tables for the delegates and the alternates. The accommodations for the press are to be vastly improved over what they were during the Republican convention. Only workmen of daily papers will be provided with seats at the press tables, which will be so arranged as to afford the reporters a full view of the delegates and of the audience, and to prevent their being interfered with by outsiders.

"Phone That Doeth Good, No Not One."
PHILADELPHIA, June 11.—Col. McClure, the veteran editor of The Times, in response to the question, "Do you regard Blaine as a strong candidate?" said:

"Yes and no. He is the candidate of the progressive element of the Republican party, but not of the cautious element. He is stronger than his party."

The Republican party is dying at the top. Symptoms of decay have been long apparent. The Democratic party has been dead for years, but it can exist without a purpose and the Republican can not. There is no decay about Blaine. Every broken-down railroad, every speculative scheme, all kinds of fraud and enterprise hail his nomination with joy. He is the kind of a man that kind of people would like to see elected. His party is divided, disintegrated, and breaking up, and unless saved by the usual Democratic supplecity, which is not only possible but probable, it is bound to be defeated. Democratic integrity is always Republican salvation."

What Will It Do Next?

WILMINGTON, Del., June 11.—The day after the nomination of Blaine and Logan The Morning News of this city, the only Republican daily in the state, issued its Blaine. On Monday the tickets were put at the head of the editorial column. However, the flag was taken down, and a half column editorial, headed "Bad Start," completely surprised the readers of the paper. The Republican was very sore over the step, and considerable excitement has resulted. The article begins by saying that "those who regarded Mr. Blaine as an unavailing candidate to be named by the Chicago convention are already justified in their judgment, their predictions and their fears." It concludes by saying that "something has evidently begun which is not yet ended."

Republican Ratiocinations.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., June 11.—The Republicans of this city to the number of several hundred rallied the nomination of Blaine and Logan. Speeches were made by Professor G. Chitt, of Oregon, Mo.; late delegate Mayor Hartwig, ex-Mayor Posauga, Capt. C. F. Ernest and others. A young man, Republican club, has been organized and a number of the young Democrats will also organize, and the campaign promises to be red hot.

MUSKOGEE, Ind., June 11.—Patriotic enthusiasm over the nomination of Blaine and Logan burst forth in one of the most spirited ratiocination meetings ever held in this city. The streets were crowded with people cheering and shouting for the head of the ticket. Speeches were made at the court house, where not one quarter of the people could be accommodated with even standing room.

Cleveland Delegates Selected.

BIDDEFORD, Me., June 11.—The first district Democratic convention chose Charles H. Chase, of Portland, delegate to the Chicago convention. W. Staples was chosen over Fred W. York. The delegates are considered to favor Cleveland, and the sentiment of the individual delegates is decidedly for Governor Cleveland.

Reception to Gen. Logan.

WASHINGTON CITY, June 11.—The ex-soldiers and sailors, residents of this city, held a meeting and decided to tender Senator Logan, the Democratic candidate for vice president, a grand reception at an early day.

At Blaine's Home in Augusta.

AUGUSTA, Me., June 11.—The California delegates attended a reception at Mr. Blaine's house Tuesday evening. The affair was strictly private, few residents of the city being invited, and no speech making was indulged in.

ROCHESTER'S HALF-HUNDRED.Continuation and Close of the Celebration—A Grand Display.

ROCHESTER, June 11.—The celebration of the semi-centennial of this city was continued, and notwithstanding the threatening appearance of the weather it evoked the utmost enthusiasm.

The main feature of the day was the procession which started about 9:30. It is calculated that at least 5,000 men walked, while with wagons, richly decorated with banners, and displaying the industries of the city it extended out about five miles in length. It took over two hours to pass the grand stand where Governor Cleveland and the other distinguished visitors reviewed it. The governor stood bareheaded for upwards of an hour watching the beautiful shades of color that passed in quick succession in the shape of military uniforms of various kinds, Old Fellows in regalia, Free Masons in uniform, Catholic knights and local organizations generally.

One of the best features of the day was the marching of between 8,000 and 10,000 children on Church street, through which the procession passed, and the joyous voice of the youngsters added to the general hilarity. It was one of the prettiest sights ever seen. Of other features in the procession, particularly noticeable were a negro band, and another composed of full-blooded Indians, with a drum major in full Indian costume. There were two representatives of King Gambrinus in regular costumes. Another feature was the appearance of the Scottish society, every man wearing a Highland costume. The parade was witnessed by many thousands of citizens and strangers.

In the evening the city was handsomely illuminated with electric lights, Chinese lanterns, and other brilliant displays. The pyrotechnic display was very fine. A grand banquet was given in the evening, at which Governor Cleveland responded to the toast "State of New York," Hon. Alfred Ely, The United States Sen. Abel W. Riley, "The City of Rochester," Hon. Frank Elston, mayor of Newark, "Our Sister Cities," and several others.

The American Duty on Art.

ROME, June 11.—In the chamber of deputies Signor Mancini, minister of foreign affairs, replied to the motion of Signor Serravallo asking the government's intentions respecting America's action in refusing to reduce the duty on foreign works of art. He declared that if the American congress does not by June 21 perfect legislation which will exempt the works of art from the same duties as the American brethren, the government will request of the United States a compensating reduction on other Italian products exported to that country. He considered the present duty unjust and an outrage upon the principles embodied in the existing commercial treaty with America. The utterances of Signor Mancini gave rise to a heated debate.

Another Suspension.

NEW YORK, June 11.—Dispatches from New Orleans announce the suspension of A. Carriere & Sons, dealers in exchange. The firm was reported worth $1,000,000. A few days ago A. Carriere, the senior partner, was drowned by falling off a steamer as he was leaving New Orleans for New York.

The Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

NEW YORK, June 11.—J. Rogers, president of the Louisville & Nashville railroad, has resigned, and Milton H. Smith, the first vice president, is now temporarily discharging the duties of that office.

RIOTS ACROSS THE SEA.

A Disappointing Election Stirrs Up Belgian Bad Blood.

Resumption of Hostilities at Newry, Ireland—News of Another Egyptian Massacre—Interesting Old World Items.

BRUSSELS, June 11.—Full accounts confirm the crushing defeat of Liberals in the elections Friday. In the city of Brussels all the members retained are Clericals, and their gain of twenty-six members in a chamber of 322 assures them full control. It is now stated that King Leopold will call on M. Beaulieu, formerly minister of public works, to form a new ministry, a conference with M. Staelen not having resulted in a manner entirely satisfactory to his majesty. Serious rioting between the members of the two parties has already begun at both Brussels and Antwerp, and it is feared that the police will have to ask for assistance from the military authorities in order to restore peace. The rioting begun here in the afternoon between the two political factions, and has increased to an alarming extent. At midnight, reports are coming in from all quarters of the most great destruction of property. Many houses and shops have been broken into by the mob, plundered of their contents and set on fire.

A number of people have been seriously injured, and there is little prospect of relief, as the authorities, although led to anticipate trouble, neglected to adequately provide against it, and in consequence are now helpless to check the disorder.

The Mob at Newry.

DUBLIN, June 11.—Early Tuesday afternoon the contending factions at Newry again commenced hostilities, and by 6 o'clock perfect reign of terror existed throughout the town. Many persons on both sides were severely stoned and beaten, some of whom will probably not recover. The military and police charged the mob repeatedly, but with little success. Fresh outbreaks occurred every few minutes, and for four hours the rioters held complete control. At 10 o'clock at night the cavalry, with drawn sabres, succeeded in clearing the streets of the most violent portions of the mob, and comparative quiet was restored.

Berber Captured and the Unlaid Slaughter Effected.

CARO, June 11.—Late dispatches received from Senigaglia confirm the report of the capture of Berber by the rebels. The governor, Hussein Pasha Khalifa, and his family, together with that portion of his garrison which remained faithful to the khedive, and all the Europeans, were massacred on June 2. The rebels assumed the town on a mass, and spared none who opposed them.

No further details have been received regarding the situation at Berber. Such meagre reports as (as far as two days have furnished) are looked upon as unworthy, and much perplexity is felt in consequence.

THE COAL MINERS.They Determine to Strike if Refused Higher Wages.

MONROVIA, La., June 11.—Miners gathered here Tuesday in general conference, discussing the price of mining in the various ports comprising the river district. The conference was called to order at 9:30 a. m. by President Costello, who addressed the delegates at length on the situation of affairs in the district. Committees on credentials and resolutions were then appointed. While the committee was making the convention proceeded to discuss the main business for which it met.

In the afternoon session the following resolutions were unanimously agreed to: That we suspend work all along the river on the 14th instant until we are paid 85¢ per bushel for mining and that no pool accept that price unless it is granted to the third pool.

The resolution was agreed to after four hours' discussion and it was contended that no uniform price would be of any use if each weighman were not placed at each coal bank.

New Passenger Line on the Wabash.

CHICAGO, June 11.—Communicating June 2, 1884, the Wabash, St. Louis & Pacific railway will establish a new passenger line between Chicago and Kansas City. The route will be via Fort Scott, Peoria, Pekin, Jacksonville, Hannibal and Moberly, traversing a section of country yet unexplored, and provided with through car connections. All trains will be composed of Pullman sleepers, parlor chair-car (draw to first-class passengers), Peerless dining-car and elegant coaches, and will run through between terminal points, without change of any kind, every day in the year.

The trains will leave Chicago at 1 p. m., arrive at Peoria 6:50 p. m., Jacksonville 10:35 p. m., Hannibal, Mo., 1:25 a. m., and Kansas City 9 a. m. Returning trains will leave Kansas City at 6:30 p. m., arrive at Hannibal, Mo., 2:10 a. m., Jacksonville, Ill., 4:30 a. m., Peoria 8:20 a. m., and Chicago 9:30 p. m.

France-Germany Amity.

PARIS, June 11.—The intense feeling of hostility against Germany which has existed in this city and vicinity was strongly illustrated by a scene which occurred in a well known cafe in this city. The place is one much frequented by the various attaches of the city press, and by many correspondents of provincial and foreign journals. A dispute arose on some topic regarding the present relations of France and Germany, in which Mr. Kramer, the well-known correspondent of The Times, and several other representatives of German newspapers and their friends, took part. The controversy ended in Mr. Kramer and several others being forcibly ejected from the cafe, amid the howling and execration of the crowd. The police promptly intervened and saved the affair from a more serious ending.
